

THE ELECTIONS.

Tremendous Political Revulsion.

The Democrats Carry Pennsylvania and Ohio by Unexpected Majorities.

Defeat of the Negro Suffrage Amendment in Ohio.

PENNSYLVANIA.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE HERALD.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8, 1867. The democrats are wildly jubilant this evening at the unexpected success of their day's labor. The streets, since the close of the polls, have been alive with enthusiastic pedestrians, and the congratulations are of the most joyous character.

A procession numbering some five thousand men was formed, which paraded through the streets, visiting the several newspaper offices and groaning the North American and Mayor McMichael in the heartiest manner. The latter, it is reported, has gone fishing—up Salt river. He was eagerly sought for by the disconsolate, but was neither at his official nor private office.

The Union League rooms and the offices of the various radical newspapers present a gloomy appearance, and such as inquirers are unable to find anything definite concerning the Warrier defeat.

The popular salute on the street is, "Have you heard the news?" Companies of men are yelling that "This is still a white man's country." "Where's your alleged equality?"

Leading republicans admit this evening that the negro equality question in Ohio is a dead issue. They openly express regrets that it was allowed to enter into the campaign, and Stevens, Kelley and other radicals are generally condemned for their advanced ideas.

The democrats have won immense sums of money, as the radicals, within two hours of the closing of the polls, waged odds on the result in the city.

The radicals are so much surprised at the turn of events as the democrats. The very best paying office in the city passed out of their hands, and with it the prestige that served in the elections that have been held in the years following the rebellion.

The successful candidates were serenaded this evening. They acknowledged the compliment in a few pertinent remarks expressing their pleasure at the result.

The Evening Post, an independent radical paper, concedes the State to Sharwood by 5,000 at least, and the city by 7,000.

Sharwood's majority, after a careful count, is estimated at 3,270, and Ludlow's 4,453.

OHIO.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE HERALD.

The Excitement in the Capital of the State.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 8, 1867. The democrats entered very earnestly into the conflict with the republicans to-day at the polls. Hardly a democrat in the city failed to vote, while many republicans might be accused of being apathetic.

From early morning till midnight all the polls, with the exception of one or two, were besieged by those who were either anxious to vote or to ascertain some idea of how the voting was going on.

At the county Court House an Englishman who had, unfortunately for himself, accepted the post of republican challenger for the sum of five dollars, got brutally beaten for being too efficient in challenging democratic voters.

A few other mishaps occurred to republican challengers at other polls, but the occurrence on every occasion appeared to originate from an over-indulgence in alcoholic stimulants.

Less than an hour after the sun went down crowds began to collect around Therman Hall, the democratic headquarters, to await the anxiously expected returns. After the hall had been packed to its utmost capacity a large assembly still remained on the outside, looking eagerly up at the windows to hear what the democrats had performed in the State. At the same time the beer and liquor saloons were all opened and prodigiously patronized.

The republicans observed the occasion very modestly, as crowd being assembled in front of their headquarters and no demonstration indulged in; but the democrats were tumultuous, and every announcement of a gain over last year's vote was received with the wildest applause. Returns from the county of Franklin were brought in by couriers, and whenever one appeared with either a democratic or republican gain his presence was hailed with the wildest delight.

This county (Franklin) gives Judge Thurman, democrat, about 2,000 majority, a democratic gain of 800 over last year.

The democratic gain in the State, as far as heard from, are large and indicate the election of Thurman. The constitutional amendment is beaten badly.

The democrats are rejoicing and the republicans have gone to bed.

The city of Columbus gives Thurman 1,202 majority.

A Radical Mobbed in Bucyrus, Ohio.

BUCYRUS, Ohio, Oct. 8, 1867. 9 o'clock P. M.]

The editor of the Bucyrus Journal (radical), was mobbed at the polls in this town to-day for presenting a negro to exercise the right of suffrage. The extent of his injuries was not stated.

IOWA.

Heavy Democratic Gains.

CARROLL, Ill., Oct. 8, 1867.

Debuque City gives 250 democratic majority, a gain of 90.

Returns to this hour (midnight) from only eight towns show democratic gains.

It will not be possible to get sufficient returns to indicate the result.

INDIANA.

Democratic Gains Throughout the State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8, 1867.

The elections in the State to-day were for county officers only. A few scattering returns from the different parts of the State show democratic gains.

Allen county—Democratic majority 250; gain 300.

Johnson and Hancock counties show democratic gains.

Bartholomew county—Democratic majority 500 to 700; last year 230.

Marion county—Indianapolis city, republican majority 800—republican gain last election 400.

This county (Marion) last year gave 1,100 republican majority.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark Charter Election—Peddie, Republican, Elected Mayor—The Common Council Eighteen Republicans to Eight Democrats.

The election in Newark for Mayor, Auditor of Accounts, Commissioner of Assessments, &c., took place yesterday. The city was remarkably quiet, owing to the closing of liquor stores, according to the statute passed by the last Legislature. The only noticeable feature in the proceedings was the unwelcome activity of the democrats, who left no stratagem untried in their efforts to bring their nominee to the surface. The temperance societies cast their votes for Peddie, the republican candidate, yesterday, in the hope that he will enforce the Sunday Liquor law. His opponent, Mr. Biglow, lost the votes of many earnest democrats in consequence of his speech yesterday, in which he was severely criticised for the late war. No one doubts that with candidates having a clear record, the democrats could command a sweeping majority. At least five hundred votes were polled in excess of those of Mr. Peddie.

A meeting for the reception of returns was held at Drankin Hall in the evening, and speeches were made by several prominent citizens. This meeting was surrounded by a dense crowd, who cheered and hissed alternately on hearing the numbers. In this election the republicans have lost in the city the city they once held, and which has been decisive but for the temperance amendment. The result was wholly unexpected, and the judicious school overrated, as all political changes in the State for several years past have been.

At a meeting held at 8 o'clock last night the returns showed a majority of 34 for Peddie (republican) for Mayor. He received a majority in the following wards—1st, 10th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th,
